Do not arrive with large trucks, containers or trollies with wheels, as they will not be transported to the site. Glastonbury 2022 has opened its doors to the Juegruists in the midst of the UK's largest train strike in decades. Some attendees to the festival have opted to make the trip to the site by car, and the campers who have already driven to the area will probably have faced traffic on the road. Do you still have to get to Glastonbury for the weekend and plan a road trip to avoid the rail chaos? Sounds good, but you should plan and make sure you know exactly where you should go. So what is the most important postal code to hit on your satellite navigation, and what are the Glastonbury parking rules? Here's all you need to know. Where is the Glastonbury Festival held and what is the postal code? Glastonbury Festival is held in Worthy Farm, located in Pilton, Somerset. There is no exact postal code you can use to get to Glastonbury site, but the organizers have provided a couple of different postal codes to help you reach a location where you can then follow the signage to the festival location. Drivers travelling in A303 and A37 are recommended to use the TA11 7DP postal code. Welsh drivers using the A39, or northwest using the A361 are recommended to use BA6 9XE, while Swindon travelers or local traffic in the A361 are recommended to use BA4 4LY. Once you reach the destination of any of those post codes, you should see signs that direct you to the festival site. Follow them closely to find their way to the parking lot. How big is a worthy farm? Worthy Farm is a site of 1,200 acres, 700 acres of which are rented to neighboring farmers. But since the last June 15 date has passed, this is no longer an option for drivers. Those who chanking have a (unknown) possibility to catch a space in order of arrival and in order of arrival, but keep in mind that the parking lot was opened at 9 p.m. On Tuesday, June 21, so that the drivers of Early Pages could arrive at night with less trottie, while the doors of the festival opened the mini © Rcoles June 22 at 8 a.m. Therefore, this option may also have passed now. In general, the organizers have urged the festival attendees to ensure that they arrive to the right side where their assigned parking is (this or west), to avoid long term times. The drivers must follow the "P" signs to find their closest parking spaces, and do not have many options on what space will be given in the parking lot, as they place it. Higher Council: Be sure to take note of the color of the route and the parking numbers so that it does not end up touring the parking lots for its vehicle when it comes to home. The festival's license granted to the farm is exhausted at 5 p.m. On Monday, June 27, so the organizers have asked people to clear the parking lots by then, or run the risk of obtaining a palmate in the authorities of the authorities.
